ACADEMIC AND COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENTS,

WITH VARIOUS COURSES OF STUDY ADAPTED TO ALL CLASSES OF YOUTH, AND

OPEN TO BOTH SEXES.

Will Methodist People Seriously Consider a Few Facts?

1. The most valuable possession that a young man or woman can possibly have is A LIBERAL EDUCATION. Every family ought, if possible, to have at least one representative thoroughly educated in a first-class College.

2. None but the very best school should be selected. There is but one period for securing an education; an inferior school chosen because it is near or apparently inexpensive will dwarf character and circumscribe usefulness for a whole life-time.

3. None but a decidedly Christian College should be patronized by those who have any regard for true character or real success in life.

4. Methodist people should patronize Methodist Colleges. Irreparable loss follows when this practice is disregarded.

5. There is no need of going to any Eastern College or any State Institution to secure the very best advantages.

The Ohio Wesleyan University

Is recognized as among the Best Colleges in the country. The facilities it affords are superior.

6. Worthy and energetic youth can secure a College education; expenses are so light as to open the College doors to all who have high purpose and courage. The actual necessary annual expenses, except for clothing, as reported by several hundred young men, is less than $160.

Preachers' Votes.—T. H. Pearne submitted the report of the Committee on Legislative Action for the Voting of Ministers, and the report was adopted as follows:

Your Committee, to whom was referred the seeking of relief for such ministers as lost their votes by ministerial changes, respectfully submit:

After having carefully considered the subject referred, upon all sides, we doubt the wisdom of seeking legislative relief in the direction suggested. The constitution forbids special legislation. To afford relief by special laws to one class would subject the legislative body to a pressure to grant like favors to other classes.

The precedent might be pleaded for action far less safe and wise.

The votes of ministers, if so secured, might be balanced by adverse votes, obtained by fraud and concealment.

Upon the whole, therefore, your Committee would advise that the subject be not farther pursued. J. M. WALDEN, Chairman.

T. H. PEARNE,

Secretary.

The following resolutions were adopted by a rising vote:

Bishop Foster.—We are profoundly grateful to Almighty God for the kind Providence he has exercised over our beloved Bishop Foster, preserving his life and health during his late extended episcopal tour beyond the seas, and permitting him to return and preside at this session of our Conference. We recognize the wisdom, kindness, justice, and Christian spirit which have characterized his official administration among us, and the great spiritual profit with which we have heard his able and eloquent ministrations in the pulpit and before the Conference.

Thanks.—We hereby tender our thanks to the pastor, trustees, and families of this Church for the generous hospitality we have received at their hands. We are especially grateful for the kindness and fraternity manifested by sister denominations and citizens generally, who have, with such open-handed hospitality, received us into their homes. Our hearty thanks are due, and are hereby tendered, to the ladies of this Church for beautiful floral decorations provided daily.

To Railroads.—We gratefully acknowledge the courtesy of the managers of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton; Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis; Toledo, Cincinnati and St. Louis; Cincinnati, Washington City and Baltimore, and the Georgetown and Portsmouth Railroads, in granting excursion rates to members and visitors of this Conference.

REPORT OF STATISTICS.

THE Committee would repeat and re-enforce the instructions submitted by the Committee of last year:

First. That we should observe, that the number of schools, the number of officers and teachers, and the number of scholars of all ages are reported twice, and care should be taken to have both reports agree.

Second. The number of scholars fifteen years and over, the number under fifteen except the infant class, and the number in the infant class should be equal to the total number given.

Third. The added numbers of probationers removed, dropped, withdrawn, unknown, deceased, received into full connection, and on the roll at the end of the year should exactly equal the number on roll at the last Conference, and received since.

Fourth. The amount of collections given in the statistics should agree with the reports of the treasurers of the different societies; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the lack of accuracy and completeness in the reports of a large part of thi Conference merits severe reproof.

Resolved, 2. That we commend the noticeable improvement in reporting even dollars in all collections.

Resolved, 3. That we earnestly recommend that the Committee having in charge the examinations upon "Methodist Discipline" specially test the applicants' knowledge in filling statistical blanks, as found therein.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

THE Methodist Episcopal Church has always been in favor of education. The true spirit of Methodism is that of John Wesley, who at twenty-three years of age wrote, "Leisure and I part company," and who employed the pulpit, the press, and the school to enlarge the bounds of knowledge, and to spread Scriptural holiness over ever-widening fields. To reproduce, conserve, and actualize the educational spirit of John Wesley is to unify and render efficient all the enterprises of our denominational educational work.

The Ohio Wesleyan University.

The past year has been in every respect a most encouraging year for the friends of this favored institution. The attendance has exceeded that of the previous year by 111, the number of students having reached 783, and of these 665 were in attendance at one time. The grade of scholarship is being constantly elevated, and is believed to correspond very nearly with that of the best colleges, East or West. The number of students taking a full course in the collegiate department is constantly increasing, notwithstanding the course of study has been made more full and the conditions more rigorous. The good order maintained furnishes occasion for congratulation. The past year was marked by one of the most gracious and widely extended revivals in the history of American colleges. The work embraced all classes, and numbered among its professedly and blessedly saved subjects more than two hundred young men and women connected with the University. The central position of the University, and the work it is accomplishing, can not fail to give it commanding influence; that influence is already felt over a large part of this country, and extended even to other lands. Its students, the past year, have come from twenty-three different States and countries, while eighty out of the eighty-eight counties of Ohio have sent representatives to its hall. This healthful and rapid growth of the University is due in large measure to the judicious and efficient management of the President, assisted by an able corps of instructors.

The excellent use now made of the means at its command, as seen in the fact that for many years it has fully met all its financial obligations, and incurred not a dollar of indebtedness, can not but commend it to the thoughtful persons who wish to use the means intrusted to them by the Master where it will best serve his cause and accomplish most for humanity. The coming year, which marks the centennial of the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church in America, ought to be signalized by such munificent offerings from the members of this favored Church as shall amply endow this institution.

With such an institution of learning, whose record on all moral and social questions is unimpeachable, whose religious influence over students is excellent—an institution that is attracting attention and patronage from all sections of the country—it is unnecessary for our people to go elsewhere to find the institution best suited for their sons and daughters.

We herewith submit the financial exhibit of the Ohio Wesleyan University, taken from the report of the Auditor, June 15, 1883:

I. Assets.
Grounds and Buildings	$200,000 00
Library, Cabinets, and Apparatus	31,000 00
Permanent Fund	297,423 44
General Fund	5,609 46
Income Fund	6,419 20
Library Fund	702 50
	$541,154 60
II. Indebtedness	1,000 00
III. Excess of Assets	$540,154 60

Resolved, 1. That P. P. Mast, Esq., be re-elected by this Conference as Trustee of the University, for the term of five years from June 22, 1884.

2. That the Bishop be requested to reappoint the Rev. C. H. Payne, D. D., LL. D., to the presidency of the University, and the Rev. L. D. McCabe, D. D., LL. D., to the chair of Philosophy.

3. That the Conference appoint Revs. B. F. Dimmick and A. Bowers Visitors and Examiners for the ensuing year.

4. That active measures be taken to complete the endowment of the Cincinnati Conference Professorship during the next year.

Xenia College.

The building and grounds are favorably located, and kept in excellent condition. They are valued at $10,000, with a reported debt of $3,350. The Board of Trustees is constituted as follows: Tobias Drees, President; Rev. W. G. Moorehead, D. D., Vice-president; W. F. Trader, Secretary; J. H. Cooper, Treasurer; Rev. D. J. Starr, D. D., Hon. M. D. Gatch, Samuel Newton, Charles R. Merrick, and Rev. William Runyan, D. D. We commend this institution to the Church as one of great importance, designed to supply the wants of the large number of youth of both sexes seeking opportunities for higher education. We recommend the appointment of the pastors of the Methodist Episcopal Churches in Xenia as Visitors and Examiners for the ensuing year. W. H. DeMotte, LL. D., is the efficient President.

Resolved, 1. That the Trustees of the Xenia Female College be and are hereby instructed to create no debts on the Xenia Female College property, nor in any way involve the stock which this Conference holds in that institution.

Resolved, 2. That we recognize no obligation to pay any debts that may be incurred without our consent, and will not consent that a mortgage or other lien shall be put on the property to secure any current expenses.

Resolved, 3. That if the school can not be run so as to pay current expenses, and to keep the property in repair, or the people of Xenia desire to have control of the College as a town school, we will consent to the sale of our stock at par, but in any event we are bound to maintain our stock unimpaired, and would act in bad faith to the original contributors to do otherwise.

Resolved, 4. That we hereby instruct the Secretary of the Conference, in voting our stock, to vote in such Trustees as will faithfully carry out our instructions.

Hillsboro Female College.

This honored school has advantages found in no other locality in our State for healthfulness, and those seeking the privileges of a good education do well to consider this fact.

The College is in a much better condition that when Rev. J. F. Loyd first took charge of it. The past year has been a successful one for the institution under his management, and the outlook for the coming year is better than the College has ever known We recommend that Rev. J. F. Loyd, M. A., be reappointed to the presidency of the College, and we cordially commend the institution to the patronage of the public. We recommend the election of the following persons as Trustees: Rev. J. Pearson, Rev. C. W. Ketcham, D. D., J. M. Heistand, Rev. S. W. Edmiston, Rev. J. T. Bail, J. L. West, Asa Haines, and Hardin Roads. We recommend as Visitors the pastors of Greenfield, Wilmington, Hillsboro, and the presiding elder of Hillsboro District.

Springfield Female College and High School.

A school of high order is maintained in Springfield, and we do not think it advisable to interfere with its present form. We recommend that the following persons be elected a Board of Trustees: Revs. J. F. Marlay, A. B. Leonard and Wm. Young, and Messrs. J. K. Mower, W. C. Frye, H. G. Hamline, C. C. Taylor, W. J. White, Harry Phillips, J. W. Coles, J. M. Deardorf, C. H. Schaeffer, J. W. Burns, J. L. Berry, J. Brandeberg, H. S. Showers, J. S. Shewalter, J. C. Miller, S. Rhodes, H. Bradley, and E. G. Dial.

Resolved, That, in our judgment, the time has come when the McFadden Fund should be without delay transferred to the Ohio Wesleyan University, as previously ordered by this Conference, and that Rev. J. F. Clalfant, D. D., be appointed to look after the interests of the Conference in regard to this bequest.

Cincinnati Wesleyan Female College.

We are pleased to learn that this institution has had so much of prosperity during the past year under the management of Rev. W. K. Brown, D. D., President, and although this college is not now, and probably can not for the present, be placed wholly under the control of our Conference, we recommend it to the patronage of our people, and trust that the efforts which are being made to free it from embarrassment will prove successful, and that the Trustees will be able soon to secure sufficient means to remove all encumbrance from the lots, so as to obviate the necessity of selling them.

We recommend W. L. Hypes, D. D., D. J. Starr, D. D., and I. W. Joyce, D. D., as Visitors for the ensuing year.

Theological Schools.

Our theological schools are closely identified with the growth and development of the Church, and are worthy of the confidence and support of the entire ministry and membership of our Church. The central position of our Conference brings us into relations with the three principal theological schools of our Church. They are worthy of our patronage, and we cheerfully and heartily commend them to our young men preparing for the ministry, and to the benevolence of our wealthy laymen.

Boston School of Theology.

Rev. D. W. Clark, Conference Visitor to this institution, in his report, says: "After a conscientious inspection of the School of Theology, Boston University, I take pleasure, as official Visitor, in bearing witness to the excellence of the institution. The instruction is thorough and practical, and permeated with the spirit of loyalty to Methodism, her doctrines and Discipline. An intelligent enthusiasm for foreign missions is also conceived. Best of all, fervent piety and love of souls characterizes both instructors and pupils. No candidate for the ministry who can avail himself of the unrivaled facilities of the institution should fail to do so. The mother of our theological seminaries deserves the continued confidence and patronage of the Church."

Adopting this as the feeling of the Conference, we recommend that the Conference appoint Rev. Jno. A. Story and Rev. Henry C. Weakley Visitors for the coming year.

Drew Theological Seminary.

The Faculty of Drew Theological Seminary report the continued prosperity of the institution committed to their care. Thirty-three new students, with excellent preparation, were received at the beginning of the last Seminary year, and the past year a class of twenty-three, most of whom will enter upon their active ministry in the West, were graduated. One of this class is under appointment as missionary to Japan. The outgoing class gives promise of great usefulness to the Church. The number in attendance the past year is eighty-three.

The spiritual life of the school is a matter of the utmost importance, and is guarded with care by the Faculty. The usages and forms of Methodism are rigidly guarded, and the meetings peculiar to our Church are recognized parts of the Seminary life. The prayer and class meetings have been full of religious interest.

The property of the institution has been improved during the present year, and still further improvements are in contemplation by the Trustees. Every effort is being made to have all students provided for in the most comfortable manner.

The Endowment Fund is being paid, in accordance with the terms of subscription, and the prospects in this regard are entirely satisfactory.

The Janes Memorial Professorship, in memory of our late Bishop Janes, which has been so largely given by ministers, is mostly paid in. Over $32,000 are now in the hands of the Treasurer. We earnestly urge the several conferences to complete the subscription by making good all that has been subscribed. It is very important that this tribute to our departed and lamented Bishop should be finished.

We recommend that Rev. C. W. Ketcham, D. D., and Rev. John N. Irvin be appointed as Visitors for the coming year.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

Rev. W. L. Hypes, D. D., and Rev. S. O. Royal were the Conference Visitors to this institution the past year, and having considered their report we learn with pleasure that the year just closing is one of the most successful in the history of the institution. Especially do we congratulate the friends of religious education that the Trustees were never more hopeful of their financial condition than at present, embarrassments resulting from depreciation of property having to a great extent been removed.

We mourn with the whole Church the loss sustained by the institution in the death of Dr. Bannister. His natural endowments, his great experience and long service, made him a power in his department. At the same time we are glad to learn that the board of instruction has been reenforced by Dr. Ridgaway, who has with much promise entered upon his work, and Professor Bradley, who will enter upon his duties at the beginning of next year.

The examinations were very satisfactory, proving that the instruction given is in harmony with Methodism, and that both teachers and students have labored diligently and faithfully.

We most heartily commend the institution to the Church as being in every way worthy of the most liberal patronage.

Having learned that no funds exist for furnishing and keeping attractive the Missionary Museum, we would respectfully suggest to the Trustees that the attention of friends be called to this fact, and that donations be solicited, so that from our various mission fields such articles may be secured as will make this museum both attractive and helpful.

We would therefore suggest that special effort be made to secure from the liberal minded among us the means of making such annual additions to the library as its great importance demands.

1. The Rev. H. B. Ridgaway, D. D., of our Conference, is a member of the faculty of this honored institution which brings this Conference into close relationship with it, and we recommend the Bishop to reappoint Dr. Ridgaway to the chair of Historical Theology.

2. We recommend that Rev. R. H. Rust, D. D., and Rev. J. F. Marlay, D. D., be appointed as Visitors for the ensuing year.

Conference Educational Society.

We recommend as officers for the ensuing year of the Conference Educational Society:

C. H. PAYNE, D. D., LL. D., President.

J. F. LOYD, I. W. JOYCE, E. T. WELLS, Vice-presidents.

D. J. STARR, Secretary.

JAMES F. CHALFANT, Treasurer.

Managers—John W. Dale, Theo. F. Speer, George N. Friend, Dr. William K. Brown, C. W. Ketcham, and W. L. Hypes.

The following resolutions we recommend for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That all money raised for education be reported in the educational column of the general statistics.

Resolved, 2. That the amount of money raised on Children's-day, for educational purposes, be reported to the Conference receiver of the Children's-day Fund, together with any money which may be in the hands of members of Conference belonging to that fund, and vouchers which they may have for such funds forwarded to the Treasurer, and that the Conference receiver pay over all funds which may come to him into the hands of the Treasurer of the Conference Educational Society, and publish his full report in the Conference Minutes.

Resolved, 3. That our preachers use their best endeavors to increase the educational collection, to be used in aiding young people in connection with our own Conference, and whenever any preacher takes but one educational collection during the year, that collection be paid over to the Treasurer of the Cincinnati Conference Educational Society, The collection taken on Children's-day, in the Sunday-school, goes into a special fund, and is not to take the place of the Disciplinary collection for education.

Resolved, 4. That the educational collections be placed in the hands of the Educational Society of the Conference, to be appropriated by its Managers during the year for the assistance of worthy and needy students prosecuting their studies in the educational institutions of the Conference.

Resolved, 5. That the officers and Managers be instructed to grant help to no persons whose application shall not be indorsed by the pastor of the applicant or some other member of the Cincinnati Conference.

Resolved, 6. That in considering all applications for aid the Managers be instructed to give preference to the applications of persons known to be preparing for the ministry or for the work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

REPORT ON SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

WE view the Sunday-school as an organization of the Church by which we can, in a special manner, reach the young people of our land, and impart to them a Biblical training, and at the same time secure their conversion.

In order to more effectually accomplish this work, all officers and teachers ought to be experimental Christians. Every teacher and officer ought to acquaint himself with the best methods of instructing those under his charge and should seek to win all to Christ.

We think it best that our Sunday-school workers should use our own lesson helps because they are better adapted to impart Bible truth as taught in our Church, and they are equal if not superior in every other respect.

We are confident that our Sunday-schools would be much more interesting to those attending, and more helpful to the cause of Christ if a larger portion of our adult population would attend and help in this feature of Christian work. And we further believe it to be to the interests of our Sunday-school work for our scholars to confine themselves to our own schools, and we earnestly appeal to the parents for their aid and influence in carrying this measure into effect.

We find a great need of cultivating in our children the benevolent habit of giving to worthy causes. We urge upon the attention of every pastor the importance of having Sunday-schools organized to help the great work of missions.

We feel that it is a great mistake to have our young people attend the Sunday-school with the idea that that should take the place of Church service.

We further believe that it would be a very helpful feature in our Church work to give a greater number of public services especially devoted to the children, for if we can make our children interested in a service the older people are very apt to be.

In view of the fact that so many persons at the present day make Sunday a holiday, we feel it to be very important that all our Sunday-school workers make it a special point to teach the children the sanctity of the Lord's day both by precept and practice. We recommend in addition to the best Sunday-school music that can be procured, also the frequent use of our standard hymns as given in our Methodist Hymnal.

We further recommend the holding of meetings by the Sunday-school Board, as provided for in the Dicipline, for the promotion of Sunday-school interests.

REPORT ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

INASMUCH as the great aim of the Tract Society of our Church is to publish and distribute among the people the very essence of the Gospel in the form of tracts; and as there can be no reasonable doubt as to the efficiency of such methods—the facts of history and the demands of the time, all concurring in this—therefore,

Resolved, 1. That with pleasure we recognize the great efficiency of this right arm of service in the Church; and that we especially commend at this time the distribution of the new series of tracts on Temperance, as containing facts and arguments, put in such clear, unanswerable manner, as to awaken the deepest interest on this subject.

2. That we will take greater interest in the work of distributing such literature, and endeavor to increase the collections for this object.

Which amount has been paid to the Treasurer of the Conference Tract Society, and his receipt for the same is held by me.

SYLVESTER WEEKS, Receiver.

FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

THE Committee on this cause respectfully submit the following report:

The past year has been the most prosperous one in the history of the Society. It has raised more money, erected more school buildings, graduated more students, and led more souls to Christ than in any previous year.

The Church and the nation are giving increased attention to the fearful illiteracy that prevails in the South, and the work accomplished by our Society in its removal meets with the heartiest approval.

While the Society has directed its efforts to the establishment and support of schools for the colored people, in addition to this it has, in accordance with the instructions of the last General Conference, given considerable attention and aid to schools for whites in the South.

The sum of $125,000 was apportioned by the Managers for the prosecution of this work during the year, allowing the usual amount, $100,000, for the colored, and $25,000 for the white, schools.

We are happy to learn that this amount has been secured; and of the $3,600 apportioned to this Conference, nearly every dollar has been raised.

While we congratulate the Conference on the fact that almost all the charges have money credited to this benevolence, we regret that in many instances the sum is so small as to awaken doubts whether the claims of this cause were presented to the people and a collection taken; and had not an elect lady made a liberal donation to one department of this work there would have been a large deficiency.

We submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the presiding elders divide among their districts and charges the sum of $3,600, apportioned by the Board of Managers to this Conference.

Resolved, 2. That we, as pastors, will present the claims of this cause to our people, and endeavor to raise a liberal collection in its behalf.

R. H. RUST, Chairman.

DAVIS W. CLARK, Secretary.

THOMAS H. PEARNE,

Conference Receiver for Freedmen's Aid Society.

THE CENTENNIAL AND OUR SOUTHERN EDUCATIONAL WORK.

OFFICE FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY,
Cincinnati, Ohio, July 18, 1883.

To the Bishop and Members of the Cincinnati Annual Conference:—

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—The year 1884 completes the first century of American Methodism. In order to recognize duly this important fact, the General Conference of 1880 recommend that the Centennial of the Church be celebrated, and directed "that the matter be referred to the Bishops to devise a plan for the Centennial year, and report to the Church as early as convenient." In accordance with these instructions, the Bishops submitted for the proposed celebration of its organization the following:

"The chief object of connectional offerings should be the cause of Education. The future of the Church will, under God's blessing, largely depend on the culture given to the youth. We commend to the liberality of the Church, first, the Board of Education; second, the Freedmen's Aid Society; third, Theological Schools; and, fourth, such seminaries, colleges, and universities, as shall be selected by the several Annual Conferences."

Through its constitution, as interpreted by the last General Conference, the Freedmen's Aid Society is responsible for our whole educational work in the Southern States, which now include nearly one-fourth of our entire membership. These States have a population of 18,500,000 (about one-third of the nation), and of this number 6,500.000 are of African descent, being twelve thirteenths of the entire colored population. Nearly eighty per cent of these can not write, and a vast number of them are without the Gospel, and a large majority have not as yet been reached with educational advantages.

Of the twelve millions and more of white people in the South, multitudes are as needy in these respects as the negroes. Our over four hundred thousand communicants in the Southern Conference are about equally divided between these races, and represent nearly two millions of people, a large proportion of them ignorant and needy, who look to us for Christian guidance and culture. Every impulse of patriotism, philanthropy, and Christianity urged our Zion to enter the South as God opened the way.

The growth of our Church in the South is one of the marvels of modern ecclesiastical history. Here there has been a net increase since 1864 of fully three hundred thousand communicants, and of three thousand three hundred and eighty-five church buildings, valued at over six millions of dollars. Every argument which moved the Church to engage in the Southern work urges with increased intensity its vigorous prosecution.

The work of our Society has now reached a point where the demand for greatly increased financial aid becomes imperative. The days of Church primary schools in cabins are passed. The public school system is undertaking, as it ought, this part of the work. Our Society can not furnish schools for the vast number of illiterate youth in the South, it can only aid in the establishment of a few institutions of learning of a high grade for the preparation of preachers, teachers, and physicians, who, as leaders and educators, can give tone to public sentiment and aid in the dissemination of intelligence and religious truth. Our Church has never faced a graver responsibility than this, and only by a greatly enlarged outpouring of money can she meet this manifest call of God.

The Society has expended $350,000 in permanent school property. And yet every term hundreds of students are turned away from our schools for the want of accommodations. Our greatest need is new buildings at several important centers. One of these is New Orleans, where for years our school has suffered because of this want. In that commercial metropolis of the South, where Catholicism is so strongly intrenched, we have a Church membership and following of fully fifteen thousand, and within easy reach of this school are more than half a million negroes. Another point is Chattanooga, where, following the recommendation of the patronizing conferences, we have located our university for the Central South. The citizens have pledged $15,000 toward the enterprise, and an eligible site has been purchased. With such a building as we need we could have an institution of commanding influence and largely self-supporting. Marshall, Austin, and Houston, Texas, and Orangeburg, South Carolina, and Nashville, Tennessee, are other points at which buildings must be had or the work will suffer greatly. We ought to have at least $100,000 for new buildings during 1884.

Our next great need is endowments for professorships. Twenty thousand dollars will endow a chair. The salary of the president of each of our colleges should be secured by endowment. We also appeal for aid in educating young men and women. One thousand dollars will endow a perpetual scholarship, by which the donor could every year aid a worthy but poor young man or woman in obstaining an education.

Dear Brethren,—In view of the vastness of this work, and of the responsibility of the whole Church to prepare preachers and teachers to aid in elevating and saving these illiterate masses, we appeal to you for your hearty co-operation. We appeal to the Church for a centennial offering of at least $250,000 in 1884. This would enable us to put one hundred thousand dollars into buildings, another hundred thousand into the endowment of professorships, and still enable us to support our schools without embarrassment.

We respectfully suggest:

1. That you heartily indorse, by special mention, our Southern educational work in your centennial appeal to the people, and urge our wealthy friends to remember this work in their centennial offerings.

2. We specially request every pastor, as early in the year as practicable, to deliver an address or sermon upon this subject, at which time the regular annual collection may be taken. Is it asking too much to request every pastor throughout our widespread connection to give at least one prominent service on the Sabbath to this cause, and that every congregation should be asked for a collection, and every member for a donation?

3. In addition to our regular collections in the congregations our hope is largely in securing individual donations. Persons making donations can name the fund or the particular school to which they desire to contribute. We ask the pastors to call the attention of the benevolent and wealthy to this work, its large possibilities, and its pressing demands. Impress them with the fact that the Centennial gifts to this cause will strengthen and establish the permanent agencies for the education and evangelization of those who have a peculiar claim upon the Church as well as the nation.

In behalf of the Society, yours in Christian fellowship,

I. W. WILEY, President.
R. S. RUST, Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

THE Church Extension Society since its organization in 1864, up to September 1, 1883, has collected and disbursed over $2,050,000. Of this amount $500,000 is a permanent fund, which is loaned to needy Churches at low interest and on easy payments.

With these donations and loans 4,215 churches have been aided in different parts of the United States, providing for an equal number of Sunday-schools and as many congregations. If each church will accommodate 300 persons, it has helped to provide over 1,264,500 people with opportunity for hearing the word of God. Estimating these Sunday-schools at an average of 150 scholars, more than 600,000 children are taught in them the way of salvation. This Society has aided in building during the past four years, on an average, more than one church a day and is increasing the number every year.

These facts attest the faithfulness of the managers to the trust committed to them, and when we consider the unceasing love of the membership of this great Church which sends forth this constant supply for the work, as waters flow from an unfailing fountain, we have hope of the full accomplishment of its mission.

The Cincinnati Conference has been asked for $4,000 annually for this cause. This amount has been distributed to the districts and to the pastoral charges by the presiding elders each year, and the same has been reported to the pastors. But for some reason the Conference has until last year raised less than half this amount. Last year the collections showed a healthy increase, although only three-fourths of the charges contributed. The whole amount paid by the Cincinnati Conference in the last four years is $6,912.57, only 44 per cent of what was required. In the same time the society has paid back to the Conference, in aid to 5 Churches within our bounds, $2,150, or nearly one-third of what we paid it. This is more than the proportion allowed by the Church Extension Board to the conferences that are self-sustaining.

With the magnitude and character of this work before us, let us reckon our obligation to do it. In view of the condition of the people aided by this benevolence, just in process of social construction, when religious elements may be built in without the extra work of first tearing down, let us appreciate our opportunity. In view of the character of this people, among the best of the American population, let prudence urge us to take them as they are and make them better, rather than assume the more difficult task of reforming them after they have become demoralized.

In view of the relation of these people to us, many of them have gone from our midst, our neighbors, our brethren, our children, they are entitled to share our benefactions as well as our sympathies.

We submit for your adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the apportionment of $4,000 to this Conference is a reasonable one.

Resolved, 2. That every dollar of this apportionment ought to be paid.

Resolved, 3. That we will faithfully try the excellent methods directed by our Discipline, and use all possible diligence to raise the whole amount asked of us.

J. P. PORTER, Secretary. J. S. WHITNEY, Chairman.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

THE great work of the American Bible Society has been successfully carried forward during the past year. The earnest purpose of the Society is, and has been, to put a copy of the Holy Scriptures into every destitute home throughout our land. The fourth general distribution is now in progress. Thousands of families entirely destitute of the Word of God have been supplied. The impression may prevail, to some extent, that the work of the Society is confined to the United States; this is not the fact. On the other hand, "its field is coextensive with the missionary enterprise of the American Churches." All our missionaries in foreign lands are supplied with Bibles by this Society, and thus their work is greatly simplified and promoted. The entire expense of the translation and publication of the Scriptures in the various languages and dialects of the Old World is borne by this and kindred societies. Her agents and colporteurs are found in almost all lands carrying forward the work of distribution. The above facts warn us of the danger of underestimating the importance of the mission of this Society. We are, therefore, resolved to exercise a greater degree of earnestness and faithfulness in urging its claims upon the liberality of our people.

Resolved: That the presiding elders be instructed to have the Bishop's claim on the various charges within their districts raised quarterly, and paid pro rata with the pastor's and elder's claims.

REPORT ON MORMON POLYGAMY.

MORMONISM is not a religion, it is a crime, therefore, can not be entitled to protection and tolerance under the laws and Constitution of the United States as amatter of conscience.

It is not a religious superstition, but a system of masked sensuality, and hence, subversive of every principle of morality, and abhorrent to every feeling of virtue. It is not even a spiritual delusion, and therefore can not be condoned on the ground that it is a hallucination or innocent mistake or frensy. It is a preconcerted, infernal scheme, partly mercenary, partly political, and chiefly licentious. It was originated in the deepest depravity, and is fed by three motives--money, power, and lust.

It aims to diffuse itself by pandering to the lowest propensities of human nature. Where this can not be done directly on account of the natural revolt of instinctive virtue to the monstrous proposition of the promiscuous intercourse of the sexes under the guise of marriage, a resort is had to deception and falsehood. They take advantage of the ignorance, poverty, degradation, and fanaticism of grown persons, and of the unsuspecting credulity of unwary youth. They first dupe, then doom their victims. It is romance and heaven in representation until liberty, virtue, and respectability are lost, then it is slavery and debauch.

When the so-called multitudinous wives become mothers, the finest property in human nature is made the strongest support of this abomination—the property of maternal affection. Women, being themselves beguiled and disgraced, and having entailed that disgrace upon their offspring, they see no hope of respectability for their children but by making polygamy respectable, and that can only be done by making a plurality of wives legal, and illegitimate children legitimate. As this can not be done under the Constitution and laws of the United States, a necessity is created for an independent sovereignty. This generates the spirit of rebellion and prompts Mormons to increase their numbers and strength by importations, illegitimate births, and by the corruption and bribery of politicians.

This work of rotten increase, we are advised, is going on with alarming rapidity. The wretched plague spot is spreading into all our Territories, and some of the States. By concealment and perjury they evade the laws and defeat the commission provided for by Congress and appointed by the President to arrest the evil. And such are the meshes, the slavery, and the new affections and interests involved in the progress of the system, that few defections from Mormonism occur, and still fewer converts to Christianity are made from their number.

It is already so rooted in the soil, the politics, the family life, and the religious fanaticism of that part of the country, that nothing but prompt and extreme measures will eradicate the evil. And unless the government shall immediately take decisive steps to exterminate the abomination, it will soon acquire such dimensions and potency as to render it impossible to remove the evil by legislation or any civil measures.

Indeed, it is the belief of some well informed men now, that this dreadful ulcer can only be removed by a resort to arms. We may at least conclude that delay in the application of civil remedies will soon call into requisition the sacrifice of life, and the price of blood, or we must submit to have our virgin soil permanently stained with the foulest system of corruption and depravity that ever saw the light in a civilized and Christian country.

Now, with such a huge evil confronting us, what is being done to abate the nuisance? Almost nothing. Ever since the appointment of the Congressional Commission, there has been a seeming lull in our feeling of repugnance to the great sin, an abatement of interest in the subject, shall we not say a guilty suspension of effort for its abolition? We have gone to sleep on the brink of a volcano. We seem to have settled down, and seated ourselves to breathe in the malaria of Mormonism for indefinite years. While Mormon agents are exploring the worst parts of the old world, and the dark places of our own land, and recruiting their deluded forces by hundreds every month, we relax energy and dismiss the subject. While Mormons are breathing the virus of their system into the heart of society, we come to the discussion of the subject with lassitude and feeble convictions. Mormon Polygamy was dropped out of the list of Standing Committees this year, and when a Committee was extemporized as an after-thought, we fear it was with no deep and stirring solicitude in relation to an evil which has been a standing menace to the purity of society for fifty years.

Unless we awake and bestir ourselves, it is our conviction that the children are now born who will pay the price of our apathy with their blood and life.

We know that preparations are being made to educate Mormon children, and thus to alienate them from the dissolutions of the system. In this we rejoice. We would educate Mormons, Mohammedans, heathens, under Christian influence if we could. But there are two sides to this benevolence. Educate Mormon children in association with Christian children, and you make Mormonism respectable and connive at and condone Mormon bastardy. The Bible rule is, "Come out from among them." We know this consigns Mormon progeny to a sad fate. But it can not be helped. We must not depress Christian virtue to lift up Mormon sensuality. One of the blackest features of Mormonism is, that it brings innocent children into existence under a cloud of disgrace from which they can never extricate themselves.

Now what is the duty of the Church and State, the Christian and the citizen? It is to agitate and diffuse intelligence, to quicken the national conscience, to rouse the Churches, and to combine all civil and religious forces against the stupendous wrong, and never relax our efforts until its extirpation from the land, root and branch, shall be secured.

Coinciding with Daniel Webster in the statement, that "the first step towards the removal of any evil, is to expose it," we offer the following proposition for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That Mormonism threatens the morality, peace, virtue, and integrity of the State.

Resolved, 2. That Mormonism is violative of every instinct of virtue, and incompatible with every principle of the Christian religion.

Resolved, 3. That a solemn and imperative obligation rests upon all Churches and citizens to labor vigorously and incessantly to remove this cancer from the body politic and social.

Resolved, 4. That a Committee of six be appointed, composed of ministers and laymen, with its head-quarters in Cincinnati, whose duty it shall be to correspond with officers of government and other parties, to collect facts and intelligence, and disseminate the same, to draft, circulate and forward to Congress petitions against Mormon polygamy, and in favor of such measures for its abolition as the changing exigencies of the case from time to time may require, and if expenses shall be incurred, to have contributions solicited from individuals and Churches to meet the same.

REPORT ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

THE Sabbath is a divine institution.

Our loving Creator, in his wisdom and mercy, for our good and his glory, gave to us the Sabbath day for rest from toil and cultivation in righteousness.

Its authority rests upon the revealed will of God, and its reason is found in the constitution of man, which requires rest, intellectual cultivation, and spiritual instruction.

That the obligation of the Sabbath is co-extensive with time and the human race, limited to no sect or nation, generation or age, was made manifest by Jesus Christ in his declaration that "the Sabbath was made for man." This constitutes it universal and perpetual.

We recognize, then, no repeal of the law written in revelation, and no change in that law found in the nature of man, which requires for him rest and religious privileges.

While thus recognizing its perpetual obligation, we are pained to record, both in the Church and the world, an increasing disregard of its sanctity. The growth of Sabbath desecration for the past few years has been rapid and alarming.

The day has been gradually losing its hold upon the people, who are more and more trespassing upon its time with labor, business, and pleasure. The railroads continue their operations, the steamers ply the waters, the government operates its postal service, stores, confectionary shops, ice-cream parlors, tobacco shops, beer gardens and whisky saloons are open.

The newspapers are hawked about the street, the militia are in camp over the Sabbath day, theaters, variety shows, base ball clubs are in full operation. Processions, with bands of music, march through our streets. Sunday lectures, with admissions fees, are held. We are sorry also to record some items in reference to the Church: camp-meetings with open gates and gate fees, call forth the people by the tens of thousands, who can not, in so large a number, be transported without an immense traffic and business of railways, omnibuses, and boarding-houses; the gate fee amounting to hundreds and even thousands of dollars, representing a business and money exchanging at the gates on the Sabbath, exceeding the receipts of all the other days of the week; the selling of groceries, ice-cream, confectioneries, and watermelons, etc., in our camp-grounds on the Sabbath.

The colored camp-meetings are carried on to make money, and held for successive weeks and months, even through a whole season, and these assemblies and camp-meetings advertising noted speakers, sensational and otherwise, in order to draw a crowd on the Sabbath day. All these things lead us to say, that both in the Church and the world there is an increasing disregard of the sanctity of the Sabbath.

While this is true, we are glad that the magnitude of Sabbath desecration is attracting the attention of the people, and we believe a healthful reaction is taking place in the minds of the people. The legislatures of our own and other States are awaking to the necessity of preserving our Sabbath by special legislation. In these times of reform we recognize the place of the Church to be in the very forefront of desire for the strictest and most quiet Sabbath. Her utterances must be clear and her hands clean on this question. She must avoid the very appearance of evil. Her interests are vitally related to the preservation of the Sabbath. If it becomes a day of pleasure, visiting, picnics, lectures, concerts, and excursions, the Church will be deserted, and the people will be beyond her reach; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we recognize the universal and perpetual obligation of the Sabbath.

Resolved, 2. That we stand by the declaration of our Discipline, made in the general rules on this subject, viz.: "We will avoid the profaning of the day of the Lord, either by doing ordinary work therein, or by buying or selling."

Resolved, 3. That obedience to our Disciplinary rule would preclude travel, paid entertainments, or admission fees to Sunday services, or reading of secular Sunday papers, as the rule requires that we abstain from buying or selling; hence we would not buy a railroad ticket, a Sunday paper, or an admission to a Sunday camp-meeting.

Resolved, 4. That we condemn the practice on the part of our members and ministers of traveling on the railways on the Sabbath day, either for business or to attend meetings remote from their place of worship.

Resolved, 5. That while we rejoice in the camp-meetings, and are thankful for the good done by them, we reiterate our earnest and candid opinion, twice before expressed in our Conference action, that they should be held with closed gates on the Sabbath.

Resolved, 6. That the time has come when something positive must be done to abate the evils of open gate camp-meetings, and that the ministers may, if they will, control it by withholding their presence and influence from those meetings whose gates are open with a fee to the public on the Sabbath.

REPORT ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

YOUR Committee on Books and Periodicals respectfully report:

Wesley led the way in providing for the mental and spiritual welfare of the masses by books and tracts, which he and his helpers scattered broadcast.

His sons and successors have followed by building up establishments for issuing religious books and papers in England, Canada, Australia, and the United States.

Our large publishing houses are a part of the growth of our Church; they were created, and they have become what they are through the effective agency of the earlier and later itinerants; they are imbedded into our Church life—an integral part of our economy and our agencies for spreading Scriptural holiness over these lands.

We record the fact with gratitude and pleasure, that in directing this great agency, involving much responsibility, wisdom, and caution, as well as high business integrity have ever been displayed, so that neither financial disaster nor defalcation has ever marred the record during our history.

The exhibit referred to your Committee shows both Concerns to be in a healthy, effective condition:

The net capital of the Eastern Book Concern is	$1,125,423 72
Of the Western Book Concern	369,081 90
The sales of the Eastern House and its branches amounted last year to nearly	900,000 00
Those of the Western were about	700,000 00
The periodical sales for the same year were, in the East	224,691 49
In the West	324,199 74

The periodical issues of these two houses are simply amazing: In the East 1,063,895 copies; in the West, 973,553.

Who can measure, or even estimate, the mighty influence exerted by these issues upon the millions who receive and read them?

It is gratifying to know that, in the growing demand for Sabbath-school books and requisites, our Book Concerns maintain a high standard of excellence in the adequate material they provide.

Our weekly Advocates are a most effective adjunct to our ministry, and they are a prime necessity in all our homes, in promoting a true and vigorous denominational life. They furnish to our people and our families that instruction and information which the pulpit has not the time nor the opportunity to afford. Our newspapers—especially the Western Christian Advocate—should be put into all our families. It is sound, free from sensationalism and conservative.

An excellent Discipline lays upon us as ministers the faithful distribution of our books and periodicals. May it not be feared that our zeal in this work is somewhat abated? Why should it be? Such an arm of power, wielded with diligence, would be a most potent agency to uproot error, defend and propagate the truth, and diffuse Christianity among men.

The circulation of religious reading is an important and honorable part of the work of devoted and useful pastors. They can in this way successfully displace the pernicious trash that forms so large a part of the reading of to-day.

We recommend the passage of the following resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, That we will aid, in all practicable ways, the dissemination of the books and periodicals of our own publishing houses; especially as to our Sabbath-school libraries and requisites.

Resolved, That we will give diligence to increase the circulation of the Western Christian Advocate, until a copy of it is found in all the families of our charge.

REPORT ON FINANCE.

YOUR Committee beg leave to submit the following:

We fear that the solemn pledge made by our membership when received into full connection in the Church, "that we will contribute according to our ability to the support of the Gospel and the various benevolent enterprises of the Church," is by some not fully understood as to its importance, by some soon forgotten, and by many others totally disregarded.

Yet we are glad to know that many are doing nobly—but with the few or many who thus liberally contribute, it at times becomes burdensome, and the question is how to obviate this difficulty.

We think this might be done by a united effort of the ministry and financial officers of Church:

1. By examples of liberality to the Church, teaching them to contribute to all the different benevolent enterprises.

2. By fully explaining to them the different collections, and the importance thereof—allowing each to stand on its own merits.

We would also recommend to the Stewards the importance of having all of the Society to feel under personal obligation to contribute something to the support of the Gospel.

3. Let this be done by an assessment, or by a subscription, endeavoring to obtain the assent of each member to the amount assessed upon him; and let this be done at the earliest possible period of the Conference year.

In societies where the envelope system is not in use, we recommend that a suitable number of collectors be appointed by the Board of Stewards, whose business it shall be to collect in accord with the arrangement made.

4. Not only let this matter include the Church members, but to all who attend the services of the sanctuary; and even others should be invited to assist.

We would also recommend that this work be done quietly but promptly—endeavoring to lead all to believe and to fully realize that it is a privilege, as well as an obligation, to give.

5. We, furthermore, recommend, wherever practicable, weekly payment by the envelope system, of all the claims for pastoral support, upon the basis of the assessment or subscription.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

We congratulate the people of Ohio that at the next election in this State there will be an opportunity to so alter our State Constitution as to make it possible to destroy the most gigantic evil which now affects this commonwealth. That intemperance stands alone in the terrible preeminence of causing crime and woe, can hardly be questioned by any intelligent man. The trophies of its dreadful triumphs are in almost every community, while in the cities and larger towns its presence is as fatal as a pestilence, and would inspire equal dread, only that we are familiar with it. So gigantic is this evil that the Legislature of Ohio, under the pressure of a public opinion which imperatively demands some relief from the uses of the liquor traffic, has submitted to the voters of the State two amendments to the constitution, one of them providing for the regulation of the business, the other for the prohibition of it.

Thus the naked question is before us, and we have an opportunity to vote upon it without reference to political affiliations—an opportunity such as the people of Ohio never before enjoyed.

We therefore urge upon every person in this State who wishes well to his fellow-men and to the kingdom of God to do all in his power to make this opportunity fruitful in the utter destruction of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages in the State of Ohio.

We are opposed to what is known as the first amendment; it proposes to regulate the business with which it deals, and therefore provides for the perpetuation of it, for it is impossible to regulate what does not exist. Therefore a law to regulate a thing is, in its logical results, a law to perpetuate that thing, and we do not desire to perpetuate the liquor traffic, nor simply to regulate it, but to destroy it. The Scott law, which has now been declared constitutional, taxes the business, and thus secures revenue from it. A license law could do no more. We can see no possible advantage to be secured by adopting the regulation amendment, while it is clear to us that it would be damaging to the temperance cause, for it would probably make it impossible to have in Ohio, either local option, the McConnelsville Ordinance, or prohibition. We therefore urge our people neither to work nor vote for the first amendment.

We are in favor of the second amendment. Whatever doubt might becloud any mind as to the scope and meaning of the first amendment, there is no doubt as to the second. It means legal prohibition in the State of Ohio of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors to be used as beverages; and prohibition of crime, and of the causes of crime, is the only attitude which civilized government can reasonably assume; civil government is established to be "a terror to evil doers," and not their protector. No government which has attempted merely to regulate the traffic in intoxicating drinks, has ever made any visible progress in suppressing it. The only States in this Union in which there has been any appreciable curtailment of the evils of intemperance are those which have enacted some form of prohibition. If the evils of intemperance are ever removed it will be by prohibition of the manufacture and sale of those beverages which produce intemperance. Both the reasons of the case, and the history of it, are conclusive upon this point. Why temporize any longer trying to simply regulate a thing which has no right to exist? Why trifle any longer with a thing which is insensible to our sorrows, sneers at our suggestions, and defies our power? Why repeat, over and over again, the identical methods which half a century has proved to be utter failures? If the last fifty years have demonstrated any thing, in the nature of legislation, they have demonstrated that law to repress the evils of intemperance does not repress them.

There are probably very few Christian men or women in this State who would not rejoice in the legal prohibition of the liquor traffic. Why not express our desires by our votes? The Legislature asks us to do it, and provides a legal methods by which it can be done. There is no excuse for indifferenee, and there is every reason for eoneerted and vigorous action. Even a man who does not believe that prohibition ean be enforced has now an opportunity to say what he would like to have if it were possible.

We appeal to the voters of Ohio to cast their ballots for prohibition, and for that only. We appeal to temperance workers everywhere to toil early and late to secure votes for the second amendment. We appeal to the friends of prohibition to organize prohibitory amendment clubs in every eommunity where such organization is possible. We appeal to the women of Ohio, who suffer more, if possible, than men do from the gigantie curse of intemperanee, to work unremittingly for the second amendment. The October eleetion may be made to bring to the women of Ohio redemption from the evil which blights so many of their husbands and sons, and transforms so many of their homes into hells; and no woman in this State can afford to be indifferent to the suecess of the second amendment.

We appeal to the friends of prohibition in every voting precinct to see that ballots are prepared, so that voters may avoid the necessity of using pen or peneil in preparing their ballots.

We are elear in our views of what should be done, and most earnest in our appeal to the voters of Ohio to eome to the redemption of the State from the crimes and woes of the liquor traffie. A failure to improve this opportunity will entail upon the State a legacy of sorrow and crime whieh no merely regulative law can either prevent or restrict. Intemperanee will eontinue to send out among us its horrible progeny of violenee, murder, widowhood, orphanage, and all crimes and sorrows. Let the voters of Ohio eome to the rescue, and the State ean be redeemed.

REPORT ON PARSONAGES.

WE are gratified to learn that our Conference has maintained its steady advanee of three parsonages during the past as in other years. At this rate of increase in about fifteen years all our charges will be provided with homes for their preaehers. Some of these are very unsuitable and should be greatly improved or exchanged for others. Some of them are partly and some well supplied with furniture. The majority, however, are practieally unfurnished. This laek of uniformity is a great embarrassment to our ministers, necessitating frequent purehases and sales, or the storage of various artieles of furniture. We reeommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, 1. That we will continue our efforts until suitable parsonages are secured by all our charges.

Resolved, 2. That in order to secure uniformity in the furnishing of our parsonages we recommend that as many of our charges as have not already done so shall this year purchase as far as possible the heavy furniture needed in their pastors' homes.

REPORT ON THE CENTENARY OF METHODISM.

WHEREAS, God in his providence, has wonderfully blessed the Methodist Episcopal Church, and given to her wealth and material substance in this country as well as great spiritual prosperity; and

Whereas, The authorities of the Church have seen fit to recognize an appropriate celebration of the completion of the first hundred years of her history in America; your Committee beg leave, in view of the foregoing, to submit the following resolutions:

1. That we heartily indorse the action of the General Committee in its preparation for the coming celebration of 1884; and that we as a Conference enter into the same with the spirit of rejoicing and gladness.

2. That we recommend to each pastor the importance of the subject, and of preaching on the same at least once during the year, and to receive the contributions of his people to be applied to the following objects which among others have been prominently named by the authorities for the Church:

1. The relief from debt and the liberal endowment of our existing Educational Institutions.

2. The indebtedness of our Church and parsonage property.

3. That we especially commend to our people the Preachers' Relief Society of our own Conference as being every way worthy to share in the offerings of a great Church during the centennial year of Methodism in this great country.

4. That we heartily indorse, by special mention, our Southern educational work in our centennial appeal to the people, and urge our wealthy friends to remember this work in their centennial offerings.

5. We specially request every pastor, as early in the year as practicable, to deliver an address or sermon upon this subject, at which time the regular annual collection may be taken. Is it asking too much to request every pastor throughout our wide-spread connection to give at least one prominent service on the Sabbath to this cause, and that every congregation should be asked for a collection, and every member for a donation.

6. In addition to our regular collections in the congregations, our hope is largely in securing individual donations. Persons making donations can name the fund or the particular school to which they desire to contribute. We ask the pastors to call the attention of the benevolent and wealthy to this work, its large possibilities and its pressing demands. Impress them with the fact that the centennial gifts to this cause will strengthen and establish the permanent agencies for the education and evangelization of those who have a peculiar claim upon the Church as well as the nation.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

YOUR Committee on the State of the Church report:

We have considered the overture from the North-west Indiana Conference, asking this Conference to unite with them in memorializing the General Conference to include among the connectional objects of the coming centennial better provision for the superannuated preachers, widows and orphans of preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The plan they recommend includes provision for a connectional fund, to be obtained by donations and bequests from the people, only the interest of which shall be appropriated to the support of those beneficiaries, the fund to be rendered secure by proper safeguards.

They urge: "That to help forward this commendable enterprise, the General Conference should instruct the several annual conferences to provide for special meetings for the purpose of concentrating the attention of the whole Church upon the importance of this movement, and that the people, everywhere, be invited and urged to bring their thank offerings to the treasury of the Lord, as a secure and permanent fund, for the benefit of the worn-out, or aged, indigent preachers or the needy widows, or the helpless orphans of deceased preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

"That to aid still further in accomplishing this specific object, such a plan should be developed and organized as shall alike commend itself in securing the widows' mite and the gifts and bequests of liberal men who have the custody of millions.

"That without neglecting the claims of other denominational beneficiaries, this special enterprise of making 'suitable provision' for the pecuniary relief and comfortable support of the worthy classes named, should be adopted as one of the great questions of Church beneficence for the year 1884—the Centennial Anniversary of organized American Methodism—and that the whole Church be invited and encouraged to give much of this entire year, with its spontaneous outflow of Christian liberality, to the great work of providing for its long neglected and suffering poor."

We recommend concurrence with the North-west Indiana Conference in this memorial to the General Conference.

There are no great questions as to Methodist polity so rife and urgent as to assume special significance just at this moment.

The time limit of the pastoral term is being discussed somewhat, developing a diversity of views concerning it. Some favor the removal of the time limit; some, the extension of the term to four or five years; some would maintain the existing status, while others still would go back to the two years' limit. The discussion, however, does not indicate any general discontent with the present system.

Your Committee do not favor the removal of the time limit, nor the extension of the term. They are opposed to any change in the existing plan. Your Committee regard with apprehension some of the camp-meetings, as now managed. They recommend that the General Conference be requested to inquire into the feasibility and wisdom of securing a like title to Methodist camp-grounds—so called—as that of other Methodist Church property; and also a like spiritual direction, as in other religious meetings of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

We regard, as far more important than any external incidents of Methodist economy, the spiritual life, power, and aggressiveness of the Church, in personal holy living and in earnest, effective work in saving men.

These are perilous times. Men are lovers of their own selves. There is much of worldliness, pleasure-seeking, money-loving, and worship of mammon. Even among some professing Christians, there is a low grade of morality, while the tendency of those outside the Church is decidedly downwards. The strain on the Church from these causes is very great. Every possible method of counteraction should be employed. Our people should be urged to a fuller, holier fellowship with God, to a more vigorous personal faith, and to complete consecration.

We earnestly hope that the coming General Conference will insist that all lines of our teaching from pulpit and press, and in our Sabbath schools, shall bear the seal of clear, evangelical, practical truth.

The basal doctrines of Christianity—human sin, misery, and ruin; repentance, faith, pardon, regeneration, adoption, sanctification, and the witness of the Spirit—should be clearly, strongly, persistently presented, until, as in the preaching of John the Baptist and the apostles, and later, of Whitefield and Wesley, and the early fathers of our own Church, their pungency and power and unction awaken guilty multitudes, and bring them to the world's Savior; and until the Church reaches the maximum of spiritual power.

With this element of earnest, practical, awakening truth, the book and periodical issues of the Church should be thoroughly pervaded.

In the Sabbath-school, especially, the great cardinal teachings of the Gospel should be focalized, and wielded for the present salvation of our children, and for their effective training. In seeking these objects, great care should be taken to keep improper books from getting into the Sabbath-school libraries, and to prevent the songs and music of the Sabbath-schools from degenerating into mere sentimental nonsense. To do this, the pastor should be pastor of the Sabbath-school as well as of the other departments of the Church.

The gifts of Methodists for Christ's cause should have a deeply spiritual character, and they should spring from the holiest impulses.

The Church should seek to fill her official positions with men of marked devotion and piety.

Not philosophy, but Christ; not theory, but holy living; not smooth prophesying, but pungent, earnest application of Christ's Gospel; not better forms, nor grander churches, but more of the power of God are the demands of these times.

We thankfully recognize that progress has been made in this direction during the last two decades, which we attribute, in large degree, to the prominence given to the Bible doctrine of entire sanctification, as held and taught by Methodism.

Let the General Conference, and all our ministers and people, cease not to cry aloud and spare not, until the whole Church, in all her agencies and members, shall have fully come up to the help of the Lord against the mighty.

A Savior for the whole world, and the whole world for the Savior, should be the motto of the Church which God has so signally honored.

REPORT ON DIVORCE.

YOUR Committee to whom was referred a communication from the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Southern Diocese of Ohio, would respectfully submit the following report:

The ratio of divorces to marriages in our State is steadily increasing every year. In the year 1870, the ratio was one to twenty-five; in 1877, one to eighteen; in 1881, one to seventeen. The number of divorces granted in 1882 was twice as large as in 1867, although our population had increased only fifteen per cent. There were twice as many divorce suits before the courts in 1882 as there were in 1871. For every divorce suit brought last year there were but six marriages. At the present rate of increase, there will soon be as many applications for divorce as for marriage license, and in twenty years the number of divorces decreed will equal the number of marriages solemnized. After that, the number of families will rapidly diminish, and the question, how soon we shall reach the time when the Christian family will have passed away, God alone can answer. We are drifting far away from the standard of God's law on this subject. Five-sixths of the 1806 divorces decreed in our courts last year were for causes other than those warranted by divine sanction.

The home is the foundation of the State. The safeguard of the home is the inviolability of the marriage bond.

Two methods of arresting the evil of capricious divorce are proposed. First, some modification of our marriage and divorce laws, so as to require among other conditions, that at least three weeks shall elapse after granting a license, before the marriage can be legally solemnized. That divorced parties shall not be permitted to marry again for three years after the date of the divorce. Second, the creation of a better public sentiment in reference to this subject. The agency through which this is being accomplished in New England is the New England Divorce League, constituted of prominent members of all religious denominations.

By this means important reforms have been effected in Vermont, Connecticut, and Maine.

It is proposed to organize such an association in Ohio. This association will be non-sectarian. Its membership will include all persons who have at heart the welfare of society, and are willing to labor for the promotion of this end. Such an association deserves the indorsement of all the religious organizations of the State, and should receive such support as they are able to give. It is proposed that each religious assembly appoint a committee, and that these several committees co-operate in the formation of a league.

Your Committee recommend the following:

1. That we heartily concur in the action of our brethren of the Protestant Episcopal Church in reference to divorce reform, and will actively co-operate with them in this movement.

2. That a Committee of one minister and one layman be appointed to act with like committees from other religious bodies in reference to this matter.

MEMOIRS.

REV. JAMES F. McCLELLAND.

THE REV. JAMES F. McCLELLAND died in Santa Cruz, California, January 19, 1883. He was converted to God in his childhood, and soon after became convinced that his life-work was to be a preacher of Christ's Gospel. He prepared for the ministry in the Garrett Biblical Institute. His ministerial life covered a period of about eighteen years. He considered the Christian ministry the highest and most sacred calling that could come to man, and demanding his entire consecration. This consecration he cheerfully and conscientiously made. This dominating sense of the sacredness of his work led him to the most careful study, and the most thorough preparation for his pulpit efforts. He so studied Christ and his Word, that these themes became the inspiration of his life, and with great power and eloquence he presented to men by his preaching, the Savior he loved and the salvation which he found to be so precious; and everywhere he daily commended the saving truths which he preached. His sympathy with the struggling and the doubting, with the tempted and the sorrowing, so asserted itself, that his sermons were characterized by the tenderest compassion. In preaching the truth, his only aim seemed to be to show men the Christ; he, therefore, discarded every thing which savored of vanity or of self. In the simplest language and the purest English, with an earnestness and an eloquence which came by the Holy Spirit, and a manner of delivery which seemed itself an inspiration, he presented the Gospel, and pleaded with men to be reconciled to God. Arguments against doubt and unbelief were so interwoven with earnest appeals, that the judgment and heart of the hearer were at once convinced and moved. He drew to himself the affection and confidence of the people by his sincere devotion to Christ. His preaching and his life appealed to the best in men, and won many to the truth who could resist all ordinary persuasions and appeals. For most of his life he was subject to great physical suffering, and at times those sufferings became well-nigh a burden; yet he did not murmur. He was faithful in his work, and always endeavored to do his best. He was twice a member of the Cincinnati Conference; was twice pastor of St. Paul Church, Cincinnati, and once of Grace Church, Dayton. In both these fields of labor he was eminently successful. In each he drew to himself many devoted friends, who will cherish his memory and the many deeds he so nobly wrought for Christ and the Church.

The growing burden of ill health finally compelled him to cease from the active duties of the ministry. He sought to regain health and strength by travel and rest, but without avail. The anxiety, the toil, the pain, and the weariness are passed. He has entered into the rest God prepares for his servants—the sweet rest of heaven. Well done, suffering and faithful servant,

"The battle's fought, the victory's won,
And thou art crowned at last."

A wife and three children remain. They should have our prayers and our sympathies—they deserve well at our hands.

MRS. ELIZABETH ARMSTRONG.

MRS. ELIZABETH ARMSTRONG, widow of Rev. James Armstrong, was born April 11, 1805, in Jefferson County, Virginia. At the early age of 9 years she was convicted of sin, and after a brief struggle she experienced a bright conversion. In two weeks from that time she united with the Church, and was baptized. The first three years of her experience were very joyous and bright. In 1828 Sister Armstrong moved with her parents to the State of Ohio, near Lancaster.

In 1829 she was married to Rev. James Armstrong. That year her husband was sent to the Burlington Circuit with David Whitcom as preacher in charge. That year Sister Armstrong records in her journal that they received $40.00 for their year's labor. Their means were very limited. They rented a single room for 75 cts. per month. Their furniture consisted of rented bed and bedding; a sister loaned them a small table and three chairs, a few cooking utensils, and they bought a cheap set of dishes, and began housekeeping. She writes, "We were never better contented than that year."

In the year 1830 her husband traveled another circuit, with Burnard A. Cassett as colleague. That was a year full of pioneer experience. They received but little money that year for their labors, and could not (says Sister Armstrong) have lived had it not been for a local preacher by the name of Ezra Grover. "At one time he sent to our house in a large cart two large dressed hogs, one quarter of a large beef, six bushels of potatoes, six bushels of turnips, five bushels of wheat, and a number of other things as a present." She further records that she had never met another Brother Grover in all her travels.

With varied experiences, Sister Armstrong traveled with her husband without any settled home from the year 1829 to 1855, when they bought a small place near Bantam, on Laurel Circuit.

After the year 1855 Sister Armstrong was not able to travel so much with her husband in his work as she had done, and she lived in Bantam and Amelia, where they greatly endeared themselves to the people.

On the 1st of July, 1874, Sister Armstrong lost her husband, who had lived 70 years, 47 of which were spent in the ministry. His death to her was a great loss. Her children and friends sought to make life as pleasant as they could for her, and yet none could fill the place of her departed husband. She looked forward with great anxiety to the time when she should be freed from the toils of her long journey. She was a regular attendant on the religious services held at Old Bethel for a number of years before she died.

Sister Armstrong became very feeble during the last years of her life, yet amid all of her afflictions she never lost sight of her Savior. She fell asleep in Jesus June 25, 1883, and her remains were buried beside her husband's in the old grave-yard at Bethel, Clermont County, Ohio.

MRS. SARAH A. KEMPER.

SARAH A. KEMPER, daughter of John and Elizabeth Gallaher, was born near Red Lion, Warren County, Ohio, January 5, 1821, and died in Lebanon, Ohio, February 6, 1883. She was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1836. Through the labors of Revs. David Reed and John W. Steele she was brought into the fold. She was the first one of a large family to confess Christ, and was soon followed in this confession by her father, her mother, and by most of her brothers and sisters.

April 5, 1842, she was married to Rev. David Kemper, of the Cincinnati Conference. For near twenty-eight years she shared with him the labors of the itinerant life. The Sunday-school was her delight, and in it she was a faithful teacher for many years. When, through increasing age and declining strength, it became necessary for her husband to retire from the pastorate, she submitted willingly, although she still loved the work. For some time before her decease her health was very precarious. The day before her departure she requested singing. On being asked her choice, she said, "Sing

> "'My latest sun is sinking fast,
> My race is nearly run,
> My strongest trials now are past,
> My triumph is begun.'"

Hemorrhage of the stomach shortly afterward took place. Life at once was doomed. She earnestly desired to see her son and only child, William R. Kemper, who was distant in Florida, once more, but this desire of her heart was denied. Frequently she would repeat, "Jesus loves me, and I know I love Jesus." With these words upon her lips she passed away to her heavenly home.

Necrology of the Cincinnati Conference.

*No Memoirs in the published Minutes. †Previously in the ministry of the Lutheran Church.

‡These and some others were many years useful local preachers. The only years in which no death occurred were 1868 and 1878. It is greatly to be regretted that some of the published Memoirs are so incomplete as not to furnish even the information necessary to fill the blanks in the above columns. The Minutes from 1854 to 1858 contain no Memoirs. D. J. STARR.

*2,392 members were, this year, transferred to the Central German Conference.

To the Members of the Cincinnati Conference:

We have labored to get the Minutes into your hands early. This has made it impossible to incorporate some corrections which brethren have desired made in their reports from charges. The only time to correct mistakes is before Conference adjourns. The manuscripts go from Conference to printers in New York and Cincinnati. We have complied with all requests as far as we could. A comparison of the tables will easily show who is responsible for discrepancies, should any be found in the reports. We recommend that the names of those who fail to report on the first day be called for reports on the second day, next year. It is only by diligent labor in securing advertisements that we are able to furnish the Minutes at the price marked on your packages. Encourage our advertisers by your patronage. Can you not get your Churches or people to order a larger number of Minutes next year? Work it up before Conference. Having done our work as promptly and as well as we have been able to do, we respectfully submit it.

SIX-SEAT ROCKAWAY.—This is a model of quiet comfort and elegance. It is roomy, luxurious, and, being constructed upon the best principles to insure solidity and convenience, it is the acknowledged leading family carriage of the age.

FOLDING FRONT COUPELET presents a picture of graceful proportions in outline, and for finish and luxurious appointments may be styled a "Landaulette," as it possesses all the elegance of the splendid Landau, only reduced in size.

THE PHAETON BUGGY is also a model of graceful and comfortable elegance, and is especially designed for family uses. It has long, easy springs, with low, deep, and roomy seats, and exhibits every embodiment of a vehicle for pleasure drives or business excursions.

Will Methodist People Seriously Consider a Few Facts?

1. The most valuable possession that a young man or woman can possibly have is A LIBERAL EDUCATION. Every family ought, if possible, to have at least one representative thoroughly educated in a first-class College.

2. None but the very best school should be selected. There is but one period for securing an education; an inferior school chosen because it is near or apparently inexpensive will dwarf character and circumscribe usefulness for a whole life-time.

3. None but a decidedly Christian College should be patronized by those who have any regard for true character or real success in life.

4. Methodist people should patronize Methodist Colleges. Irreparable loss follows when this practice is disregarded.

5. There is no need of going to any Eastern College or any State Institution to secure the very best advantages.

THE OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Is recognized as among the Best Colleges in the country. The facilities it affords are superior.

6. Worthy and energetic youth can secure a College education; expenses are so light as to open the College doors to all who have high purpose and courage. The actual necessary annual expenses, except for clothing, as reported by several hundred young men, is less than $160.
